

Aaron L. Solomon

| | |
|------------------------|--|
| Position: | Associate |
| Practice Group: | Commercial Litigation / Appellate / Public Policy |
| Education: | University of Chicago, J.D., 2002 Wesleyan University, B.A., 1997 with honors |
| Bar Admissions: | Colorado |

Aaron Solomon focuses on both commercial litigation and public policy/appellate law. Mr. Solomon has represented clients in a variety of civil proceedings including breach of contract and employment matters and has participated in appellate proceedings before the Seventh and Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals. He is a contributor to the Rocky Mountain Appellate Blog.

Mr. Solomon graduated from the University of Chicago Law School in 2002, where he served as a Comments and Developments Editor for the Chicago Journal of International Law. Mr. Solomon received his Bachelor of Arts with Honors from Wesleyan University's College of Social Studies in 1997.

Mr. Solomon joined Hale Westfall in 2007. Prior to joining the firm, he was an associate at the Chicago firm of Wildman Harrold Allen & Dixon, LLP, where his practice focused on commercial litigation. Mr. Solomon served as a clerk to Magistrate Judge Geraldine Soat Brown in 2002-2003.

Mr. Solomon was named one of Colorado's "Rising Stars" in the 2011 edition of Super Lawyers Magazine.